Biographical History: William Baxter Godbey was born in Pulaski County, Kentucky, on June 3, 1833. He was raised in a Methodist home. Godbey experienced his moment of conversion in November, 1849 (age 16).

In 1853 the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South licensed William Godbey to preach. Godbey taught in various public schools, preached and later studied at Georgetown College (graduating in 1859). From 1859-1869 he served as president of Harmonia College in Boyle County, Kentucky. He also preached to the Perryville Circuit during this same period. Godbey was admitted to the Kentucky Conference as a full member in 1868 and was entirely sanctified in December of the same year. Godbey served as a presiding elder and pastor in Kentucky for the next two decades.

W. B. Godbey married America Emma Durham (1839-1915) in 1860. They had eight children. The only child to survive into adulthood was daughter Effie Orpha (1873-1906), who married Rev. F. M. Hill (1864-1908), a minister in the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1883 and 1884 he expanded his ministry to Missouri and Texas but in 1918 Godbey was re-admitted to the Kentucky Conference. Godbey died on September 12, 1920.
